Job Opening

Review Specialist: Job posted January 17, 2024 The Review Specialist is part of a dedicated team that implements the national accreditation program to build and recognize strong land trusts, foster public confidence in land conservation, and help ensure the long-term protection of land. The Review Specialist serves as a primary evaluator of applications for accreditation and promotes and implements the Commission's values of integrity, accountability and service.

The Commission prefers candidates who are located within driving distance of the Saratoga Springs, NY office but will consider outstanding candidates who are available to travel for occasional in-person training in Saratoga Springs, NY. The position is full-time and requires some weekend and evening work and travel at least three times per year.

Volunteer as a Commissioner

Have you ever thought about serving as a member of the Land Trust Accreditation Commission or do you know someone who you think would be a good commissioner? Serving on the Commission is a great opportunity to work with a dedicated group of volunteer conservation leaders from around the country and be part of a national program that fosters excellence, trust and permanence in land conservation.

If you or someone you know is interested, please look at the commissioner job description. Commissioners volunteer approximately 2-3 days a month reviewing applications and governing the organization.

Interested individuals should submit a summary of their qualifications by completing the Commissioner Candidate Questionnaire. Please note, that the questionnaire must be completed in one sitting, it is not possible to save answers as you go. See an example of the candidate questions.

Commissioners commit to serve a three-year term. If you would like to learn more about service as a commissioner, contact Commission Executive Director Melissa Kalvestrand at 518-587-3143 or mkalvestrand@landtrustaccreditation.org.

"My work with the Commission has given me a few glimpses into some truly remarkable land trusts who are working with the social service and health care sectors to enhance opportunities for more local food security, equitable and universal access to natural and recreation areas, and to promote a vision of healthy communities on healthy lands."

â€“ Michael Pope, Land Trust Accreditation Commissioner
