

- Commission training opportunities generally focus on the accreditation processes and documenting your organization's implementation of the indicators (as described in the Requirements Manual).
- The Land Trust Alliance's training opportunities are more vast and diverse, providing people involved in conservation work with opportunities to advance their success through unique learning and networking programs in communities all across the country.

Video Tutorials

- Renewal: video tutorials for renewal applicants.
- First-Time: video tutorials for first-time applicants.
- Video tutorials for first-time and renewal applicants on using the accreditation management system

Webinars Available on Demand

- 2023 Requirements Manual Training: This webinar held in May 2023 will help you understand the updates to the Manual and accreditation requirements. Watch and listen to the recorded presentation.
- 2022 All About Applying for First-Time Accreditation: This information session was held in June 2022. To see the slides, click here. To view a recording of the information session, CLICK HERE, you will be prompted to register to view the content, once input the video will be made available.

Page updated 6/8/22