

You asked and we listened! To make the accreditation application as efficient and user-friendly as possible, the Commission is actively enhancing the online application's functionality.

For future applications, applicants will be able to choose to use the new e-Signature option for signing the Accreditation Agreement and the Accreditation Application Board Resolution. If you are a future first-time applicant get more information here. If you are planning to renew accreditation soon click here for more information.

