

If your organization wishes to apply for renewal of accreditation earlier than required, you may register for one round earlier than when your application is required. The Commission will attempt to accommodate your preference; however, priority will be given to applicants that must apply in that round.

If you have questions, please email the Commission or call 518-587-3143.