Commission Resources Describe Value of Accreditation

We are excited to share with you resources that highlights how Your Investment in Accreditation Matters.

Accreditation strengthens the land trust movement, keeps you on the leading edge and pays you back.

This new piece demonstrating the value of accreditation can be shared with your board and staff as well as with landowners and supporters. It includes data on how accredited land trusts save more land and raise more money, and are better positioned to protect, defend and steward land.
